

Ishita Mukhopadhyay is Professor, Department of Economics, and Former Director, Women Studies Research Centre, University of Calcutta. She has been a former President as well as Treasurer of the Indian Association for Women's Studies (IAWS) in recent years. As a researcher in the field of labour economics, she has supervised several doctoral dissertations on informal employment. She is a development economist who also pursues interdisciplinary research. She has published widely on her areas of specialization, which include development economics, mathematical economics, labour economics, and gender and development. She is a member of the Central Executive Committee, All India Democratic Women's Association.